Notice of Hearing on Proposed
Administrative Regulations

A public hearing will be conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday, December 3, in Room 106 of the Landon State Office Building, 900 S.W. Jackson, Topeka, to consider the adoption of proposed changes in existing rules and regulations.

The 60-day notice of the public hearing shall constitute a public comment period for the purpose of receiving written public comments on the proposed rules and regulations. All interested parties may submit written comments prior to the hearing to the executive administrator of the Board of Nursing, Room 551-S, Landon State Office Building, 900 S.W. Jackson, Topeka, 66612. All interested parties will be given a reasonable opportunity to present their views orally on the adoption of the proposed regulations during the hearing. A summary of proposed regulations and their economic impact follows.

K.A.R. 60-1-104. Definitions. Key words used in the education regulations are defined.

K.A.R. 60-2-101. Requirements for initial accreditation. The regulation for initial accreditation of schools of nursing is revised to include previous guidelines. If a new school is applying for accreditation, there are specific steps to be taken and certain materials to be provided by the school to the board.

K.A.R. 60-2-102. Reaccreditation requirements. The resurvey process is outlined so that directors of schools of nursing know the exact procedure.

K.A.R. 60-2-103. Faculty and preceptor qualifications. The required qualifications of nursing faculty, adjunct faculty and preceptors are contained in this regulation.

K.A.R. 60-2-104. Curriculum requirements. Schools of nursing are required to submit to the board the curriculum for each course. Revisions may be reviewed by the board or staff. The board has identified the minimum number of course hours which must be completed before a student is eligible for graduation.

K.A.R. 60-2-105. Clinical resources. Each school will be affiliating with various facilities to provide clinical experiences for students. Requirements for clinical resources are in the regulation.

Social and Rehabilitation Services

Public Notice

The methods and standards for setting payment rates for Medicaid nursing facilities (NFs) and NFs-mental health (MH), will include provisions for the federal minimum wage increases, to be effective October 1, 1996, and September 1, 1997. The minimum wage rate adjustment will be facility specific. Providers are required to submit a report and documentation to the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services to request the minimum wage adjustment to their Medicaid payment rate.

Providers who are paying employees less than the new minimum wage requirements may request a pass-through reimbursement factor. The minimum wage increases to $4.75 per hour on October 1, 1996, and $5.15 per hour on September 1, 1997. The factor will be restricted to the difference between the employees hourly rate prior to the minimum wage increase and the new minimum wage rate, plus the related increase in the employer's taxes and benefits.

The resident days used to determine the minimum wage per diem pass-through will be based on the actual days reported in the last submission of the Nursing Facility Financial and Statistical Report. The resident days will not be subject to the 85 percent minimum occupancy factor. The per diem pass-through shall not be subject to the cost center limits.

Requests for the minimum wage adjustments received after October 1, 1996, and September 1, 1997, will be effective retroactive to those dates. This may involve a retroactive rate adjustment back to the effective dates of the two minimum wage increases. The minimum wage pass-through factors will be phased out as the wage and related payroll costs are included in the Nursing Facility Financial and Statistical Report and reflected in the subsequent rates, subject to payment limitations.

The expected estimated annual aggregate increase in NF and NF-MH expenditures in state fiscal year 1997, due to implementing the first phase of the minimum wage increase, will be less than $500,000.

The agency is changing its methods and standards to allow the increase in the federal minimum wage to be reflected in the provider's rate. This will continue to assure that payment rates are reasonable and adequate to meet the costs which must be incurred by efficiently and economically operated facilities to provide services in conformity with applicable state and federal laws, regulations, and quality and safety standards.

Copies of the proposed changes, forms and instructions are available by contacting the local, area or central SRS offices. Comments may be sent and reviewed at the Adult and Medical Services Commission, Nursing Facility Program, 6th Floor, Docking State Office Building, 915 S.W. Harrison, Topeka, 66612-1570.

Article 6.—MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM—CLIENTS' ELIGIBILITY FOR PARTICIPATION

30-6-53. Financial eligibility. This regulation is being amended to note that expenses for routine supplies as defined in K.A.R. 30-10-15a(b) and for institutional care where the individual does not meet nursing facility criteria through the level of care evaluation or reevaluation process as defined in K.A.R. 30-10-7 shall not be allowable expenses for application to a spenddown or patient liability amount.

Economic Impact: This change is not expected to have any discernable economic impact, as it reflects current program policy.

Bearer of Cost: None

30-6-53w. Financial eligibility. This regulation is being amended to note that expenses for routine supplies as defined in K.A.R. 30-10-15a(b) and for institutional care where the individual does not meet nursing facility criteria through the level of care evaluation or reevaluation process as defined in K.A.R. 30-10-7 shall not be allowable expenses for application to a spenddown or patient liability amount.

Economic Impact: See the economic impact statement for 30-6-53.

30-6-103. Determined eligibles; protected income levels. This regulation is being amended to increase the one-person protected income level for persons in independent living arrangements from $470 to $475 per month. This is based on a projected 2 percent cost of living adjustment in the Supplement Security Income (SSI) program, which would become effective January 1, 1997.

Federal Mandate: This change is required by 42 CFR 435.811, 435.812 and 435.1007 of the Medicaid regulations.

Economic Impact: This change in the one-person level is not expected to have a discernible economic impact. This is due to the relatively small number of households affected by a change in the one-person protected income level. These households are primarily noninstitutionalized adults who receive Social Security benefits and children living with a caretaker other than a parent. The primary source of income for these children also is Social Security benefits. As the one-person protected income level is being increased by a little over 1 percent, this approximates the 2 percent Social Security cost-of-living adjustment. Therefore, neither the client nor the department is benefited or disadvantaged by this change.

Affected Parties: None

Bearer of Cost: None

Other Methods: None

This regulation also is being amended to establish a separate protected income level standard for persons in the home- and community-based services program. That standard shall be based on 100 percent of the official federal poverty income guidelines (currently $645/month).

Economic Impact: This change is expected to result in an increase in expenditures of $1.3 million ($533,000 state general funds) based on an increase in the income level and a lower client obligation for approximately 1,900 current HCBS consumers.

Bearer of Cost: The taxpayers of the State of Kansas will bear the additional costs of this change through appropriated state and federal funds.

Affected Parties:

1. This change will have minimal administrative impact on SRS staff in implementing the increase.

2. This change will benefit approximately 1,900 HCBS consumers by lowering the amount of client obligation for HCBS services and increasing money available to pay for room and board.

3. This change also will help expand available housing options such as assisted living and residential health care facilities necessary for the success of the LIFE project by allowing consumers sufficient money to help pay for the cost of room and board that is not covered by Medicaid.

Other Methods: The agency discussed other methods of achieving the purpose of these rules and regulations. However, for the successful expansion of the home- and community-based programs and a subsequent decrease in the use of more expensive institutional living arrangements, an increase in the amount of income allowed for basic living expenses was necessary. Alternative living arrangements such as assisted living and residential health care facilities are needed, and the basic cost of room and board at such facilities are higher than the previous $470 income level would cover. The proposed increase should be sufficient to allow the consumer to better meet the cost while also helping expand housing choices necessary to support the increased home-based care.

30-6-103w. Determined eligibles; protected income levels. This regulation is being amended to increase the one-person protected income level for persons in independent living arrangements from $470 to $475 per month. This is based on a projected 2 percent cost of living adjustment in the Supplement Security Income (SSI) program, which would become effective January 1, 1997.

Federal Mandate: This change is required by 42 CFR 435.811, 435.812 and 435.1007 of the Medicaid regulations.

Economic Impact: See the economic impact statement for K.A.R. 30-6-103. This regulation also is being amended to establish a separate protected income level standard for persons in the home- and community-based services program. That standard shall be based on 100 percent of the official federal poverty income guidelines (currently $645/month).

Economic Impact: See the economic impact statement for 30-6-103.

30-6-109. Personal property. This regulation is being amended to remove the exemption for trusts composed only of pension, Social Security, or other income to the individual. This exemption is no longer applicable since the elimination of the 300 percent cap rule on July 1, 1996.

Economic Impact: This change is not expected to have any discernable economic impact, as it reflects current program policy.

30-10-15a. Reimbursement. This regulation adds level of care criteria for payment and adds and clarifies covered medical supplies and other items.

30-10-17. Cost reports. This regulation change identifies the correct version of the "instructions for completing the nursing facility financial and statistical report (ms-2004)" providers must submit.

Article 41.—LICENSING OF COMMUNITY-BASED AGENCIES PROVIDING SERVICES TO ADULTS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR OTHER DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

30-41-6b. This regulation is being revoked because it is being replaced by new Article 63—Licensing Providers of Community Services.

Article 46.—CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT

30-46-10, 30-46-13, 30-46-15, 30-46-16 and 30-46-17. These regulations have been amended to (1) provide the department with authority to establish criteria for entry of the name of perpetrators of child abuse and neglect in the central registry, and (2) clarify and particularize terms pertaining to child abuse and neglect used in the Kansas Code for Care of Children.

Economic Impact: More than 250 administrative hearings are conducted annually by SRS involving findings of child abuse or neglect. Most such appeals are by confirmed perpetrators of child abuse or neglect and are motivated either by the appellant's disagreement with the finding itself or with placing their name in the central registry. Not all persons who have been confirmed, however, pose an equal danger through occupational contact with children. Though abuse or neglect may have occurred, some are considered an isolated event, not likely to recur. If the regulations permitted the department to establish criteria related to the purpose of K.S.A. 65-516 (child care licensing) in addition to simple confirmation as the basis for entry of the name or perpetrators, names of those with minor infractions would not be entered and fewer appeals would result.

Although the proposed amendments are not made for the purpose of reducing cost, it would likely have that effect. It is estimated at least 10 percent (25) fewer cases would be appealed saving at least one-half day each for hearing officers and likely the same for area staff and attorneys, plus phone and/or transportation costs to locations other than Topeka.

Under current regulations, the department has felt obligated to provide a mechanism whereby persons with minor or situational offenses would not face the stigma or economic impact of the registry. That mechanism has been to offer a "post confirmation corrective action plan." The development and monitoring of such plans is very time consuming and is thought to have little advantage in improving the safety of children beyond what is available with other methods. The proposed amendments to the regulations would remove the necessity for corrective action plans in all but a small number of cases. Although data on the number of such cases are not readily available, the savings in staff time (reinvested in more time for the serious cases) would be substantial.

Affected Parties: The change would have a significant positive impact on available time by child protection staff, area attorneys and administrative hearing officers. A small number of reports, probably less than 5 percent, are received by the department alleging a person who is not a parent, family member or caregiver has abused a child. Because the statutes and current regulations lack sufficient detail, the public is not provided adequate notice concerning department authority and responsibility for the investigation of reports of suspected child abuse or neglect. The recommended changes provide detail necessary to provide more explicit notice to those subject to the provisions of the Code for Care of Children.

State of KansasBoard of Emergency Medical Services*Notice of Hearing of Proposed
Administrative Regulations

The Kansas Board of Emergency Medical Services will conduct a public hearing at 2 p.m. Monday, November 18, at the Sedgwick County Medical Society, 1102 S. Hillside, Wichita, to consider the adoption of new regulations and proposed changes in existing regulations.

The 60-day notice of the public hearing shall constitute a public comment period for the purpose of receiving written public comments on the proposed regulations. All interested parties may submit written comments prior to the hearing to the administrator of the Board of Emergency Medical Services, 109 S.W. 6th, Topeka, 66603. All interested parties will be given a reasonable opportunity to present their views orally on the adoption of the proposed regulations during the hearing.

Any individual with a disability may request accommodation in order to participate in the public hearing and may request the proposed regulations and economic impact statement in an accessible format. Requests for accommodation should be made at least five working days in advance of the hearing by contacting the administrator of the board.

Copies of the regulations and the economic impact statement may be obtained from the board at the address above, (913) 296-7296. A summary of the proposed regulations and their economic impact follows.

K.A.R. 109-1-1. Definitions. The changes in this regulation will affect the following definitions:

109-1-1 (b). This regulation allows officers with the Kansas Highway Patrol or any law enforcement officer certified as an attendant with the Board of EMS, who is at the scene of an accident or medical emergency, to request an air ambulance response. There is no economic impact.

109-1-1 (c). This regulation changes "Aeromedical physician" to "Air medical advisor." This change will provide a more detailed explanation of the duties of an air ambulance service's medical advisor.

109-1-1 (l),(m). The changes in these regulations clarify the acts which constitute unprofessional conduct by an attendant or an instructor coordinator.

109-1-1 (o),(p). The changes in these regulations clarify the acts which constitute incompetence by an instructor coordinator or an attendant.

109-1-1 (q),(r),(s). These changes affect the definitions of "Type I ambulance services," "Type II ambulance services" and "Type V ambulance services."

109-1-1 (t). The changes in this regulation eliminate the definitions of a Type I-A and IV-A air ambulance and replace them with the definition of an air ambulance.

109-1-1 (v). The changes in this regulation eliminate the categories of continuing education. These changes should have a positive economic impact for both attendants and program providers by simplifying the types of continuing education necessary for attendant recertification.

109-1-1 (x). This proposed regulation defines "Air medical personnel."

109-1-1 (y). This proposed regulation defines "Critical care transport." This term is used in conjunction with Type V ambulance services.

The proposed changes in K.A.R. 109-1-1 have no economic impact on the board or other persons involved with emergency medical services.

K.A.R. 109-1-2. Medical advisor. This proposed regulation requires each air ambulance service to have a medical advisor who is responsible for advising the service on appropriate policies and procedures as well as the aircraft, personnel and equipment used during air medical transport. This regulation corresponds to the approval of the air medical safety training program found in 109-2-5 (y), and the approval of staffing for a Type V ambulance service found in 109-2-6 (d).

Since air medical transport is a specialized service which provides the most advanced levels of pre-hospital care, the knowledge and training of the air medical advisor is extremely important. National accreditation programs for air medical transport services also prescribe to the importance of properly trained and educated air medical advisors. All air ambulance services currently licensed in Kansas have already acquired physicians as medical advisors who have an interest and specialized knowledge in air medical transport. As a result, there is no economic impact on currently licensed air ambulance services.

K.A.R. 109-2-1. Service director. This regulation requires each ambulance service operator to designate a person as a service director. This is an existing regulation and proposes some minor changes in language. There is no economic impact with these changes.

K.A.R. 109-2-2. Application for permit and permit renewal. This section explains the process for "Application for permit and permit renewal." The only change in this regulation occurs in Section (b). This change basically gives services an additional 30 days in which to turn in their applications for service permit renewal. There is no economic impact with these changes.

K.A.R. 109-2-3. Ambulance service permit registration fee. This regulation is being revoked. The existence of this regulation is an oversight, as it was replaced by 109-7-1. There is no economic impact with these changes.

K.A.R. 109-2-4. Display of permits, licenses and certificates. This regulation explains the requirements for maintaining and displaying service permits, vehicle licenses and attendant certifications. This regulation has been reorganized, but is essentially unchanged. There is no economic impact.

K.A.R. 109-2-5. Ambulance service operational standards. This regulation proposes a number of significant changes in "Ambulance service operational standards." Those sections which propose a substantive change are as follows:

109-2-5 (b). This regulation adds a "corrections officer" to those persons allowed to carry firearms aboard an ambulance.

109-2-5 (d),(e),(f). A number of changes, mostly deletions, have been proposed in these regulations concerning the care and cleaning of an ambulance and equipment within an ambulance. Some of the current language is redundant or is specifically covered in an operator's "Infectious Disease Exposure Plan" which is required by federal law. There is no economic impact.

109-2-5 (h). The change in this regulation allows the operator an additional 30 days to obtain a mechanical and safety inspection for an ambulance prior to re-licensing.

109-2-5 (k),(l). The changes in these regulations clarify the requirements for ambulances out of service and extend temporary ambulance licenses from 30 to 60 days.

109-2-5 (m). This regulation is intended to address small ambulance services with only one licensed ambulance. The changes in this regulation clarify the process for reporting to the board when a service is unable to provide ambulance transport due to mechanical problems.

109-2-5 (n). The changes in this regulation clarify the requirement for an operator to have an emergency telephone number which is answered 24 hours a day.

109-2-5 (p). The changes in this regulation clarify the requirement for an operator to maintain a "duty or call schedule" as proof of appropriate staffing.

109-2-5 (q). This is not a new regulation, but the language has been changed to clarify the necessary documentation involved with patient contact and transport by an ambulance service.

109-2-5 (r). This regulation requires each operator to keep a daily record of each request for ambulance response. The minimum requirements of these records are also specified. Although most operators already maintain these records, poor recordkeeping has created difficulty for the board when investigating complaints against service operators. These records are usually critical when reviewing complaints of substandard patient care. Although this regulation may require some services to up-grade their dispatch records, no economic impact is expected.

109-2-5 (t),(u). These proposed regulations require an attendant with a transporting service to leave a copy of a patient care report form at the hospital receiving the patient. There are provisions within this regulation for alternative transmission of a written document if the attendant is unable to complete a report prior to leaving a hospital. Since written medical documents are an essential component of any health care system, this regulation ensures that hospitals will be able to acquire written documents containing pre-hospital, patient care information. There is no expected economic impact since service operators are already required to maintain a patient report form for each patient transported.

109-2-5 (v). This regulation requires each "publicly subsidized" ambulance service to submit certain statistical information to the board. In the past, all statistical data has been voluntarily submitted each year with the service's license packet. Since data collection is becoming more important and the information collected is frequently used by the board to assist other ambulance services; implementation of this regulation will allow the board to gather more current and complete information about ambulance service operations. This regulation also has a provision which exempts nonpublicly subsidized operators from having to report statistical information. There should be no economic impact to the board or operator from this regulation.

109-2-5 (w). This regulation establishes requirements for a service's "quality improvement program." This regulation has been in effect for two years and has significantly improved the operations of a number of ambulance services. The changes in this regulation attempt to clarify some of the language. The only significant change requires service operators to report findings to the board where an attendant's actions either caused or had a reasonable probability of causing injury to a patient. There should be no economic impact to the operator. There may be some increased investigations activity by the board which would increase work load, but not necessarily costs to the agency.

109-2-5 (y),(z). These regulations require each air ambulance service to develop a specialized training program covering topics on aircraft operations and safety practices. This program will be provided to all regularly scheduled air medical personnel on an initial and annual basis. Although this requirement could have a notable economic impact on air ambulance operators, all current Kansas licensed air ambulance operators already provide this training. This type of training also is consistent with the standards of national accreditation programs.

109-2-5 (aa). This regulation requires each air ambulance service to develop an orientation/education manual which promotes the proper use of air medical transportation. This information shall be provided, on request, to all ground based services, law enforcement agencies and hospitals which regularly interface with the air ambulance service. Since all current Kansas licensed air ambulance services already provide the majority of this information, the economic impact of producing this document is essentially a nonissue. There will be some costs involved in providing this document as specified in the regulation, but these costs should not run more than two or three hundred dollars per air ambulance operator.

109-2-5 (bb). This regulation reflects changes in medical protocol approval. The recent changes in statute, as well as the proposed regulations, should make it easier for services to get their medical protocols approved. There is no economic impact with these changes.

K.A.R. 109-2-6. Classes of ambulance services.

109-2-6 (a)(4) and (b)(4) clarify the maximum average response times on emergency calls.

109-2-6 (d). This section explains the function of a Type V ambulance service and the kinds of vehicles which can be licensed as Type V. This regulation specifies the procedures for approving transport by a Type V ambulance. There is no economic impact from these regulatory changes.

K.A.R. 109-2-7. Ground and air ambulance staffing. The proposed changes in this regulation clarify the staffing requirements for Type I, Type II and Type V ambulances.

109-2-7 (a). This regulation has had a number of language and structure changes; however, the content of this section is unchanged. Although state statute allows a registered nurse to function as an attendant, registered nurses are not listed as an attendant in the minimum staffing requirements in the regulations.

109-2-7 (b) describes the staffing for Type II ambulances. The changes in this section are mostly grammatical with the elimination of some old language.

109-2-7 (c). These regulations significantly affect the staffing on a Type V ambulance. It restricts primary staffing to a physician or nurse, and allows a broader range of staffing for the second attendant as the "mission" may require. Since all current Type V ambulances are staffed with at least a nurse or a physician, there should be no economic impact with this change. By allowing a broader range of care providers to function as the second attendant, staffing costs should reflect a positive economic impact for the operator.

109-2-7 (d),(e),(f). These sections address specialized training requirements for Type V personnel with some flexibility concerning the type of mission. Since there is an expectation by both the general public and EMS community for Type V ground and aircraft services to provide the highest standards of pre-hospital care, this regulation will increase the educational requirements for Type V personnel while providing greater flexibility for specialized staffing needs. Since current Type V services are already meeting these minimum educational requirements for their staff, there is no economic impact.

K.A.R. 109-2-8. Standards for Type I and Type II ambulance vehicles and equipment. This regulation proposes a number of verbiage changes. It adds the word "ground" to the main title of 109-2-8. It also proposes changing the word "vehicle" to "ambulance" in most applications of the word. It eliminates the mention of any Type V ground vehicle applications, which will be described in 109-2-11. The changes in this regulation are numerous and only those sections with substantive changes will be addressed.

109-2-8 (a),(b). This section proposes dropping the maximum requirements for the external dimensions of an ambulance. There is no economic impact.

109-2-8 (c) through (h) propose a number of changes in the ventilation system, patient compartment lighting, vehicle alternator size and approval of emergency lights and siren. There is no economic impact.

109-2-8 (i). This regulation was implemented on January 1, 1994. It describes the ambulance markings and specifies lettering and logo size and location. Since a number of service operators had ambulances in service prior to January 1, 1994, which do not meet the minimum requirements for markings, a grandfather clause has been added which exempts ambulances currently operating from being "re-marked" to meet the size requirements. There is no economic impact with these changes.

109-2-8 (j). This section defines the requirements and capabilities for the ambulance communications (radio) system. There is no economic impact.

109-2-8 (k). This section proposes some minor changes in the fire extinguisher carried on an ambulance, hand-held lighting, and patient comfort equipment. Service operators should notice a positive economic impact from these proposed changes.

109-2-8 (l). This section reflects some minor changes in the ambulance's internal oxygen and suction systems. There is no economic impact.

109-2-8 (m),(n). These two sections list the necessary medical equipment for Type I and II ambulances. There are a number of changes, some of which are significant.

The quantities of many types of medical equipment have been reduced, while other equipment has been eliminated. The equipment lists for each ambulance are addressed in 109-2-8 (r). The changes in this regulation should reflect a positive economic impact to the operator.

109-2-8 (o). This section requires each ambulance service to demonstrate that either they provide extrication and rescue services or a fully equipped rescue vehicle is immediately available to the operator. The list of hand tools preceding this regulation has been removed. The service operator should note a positive economic impact with these changes.

109-2-8 (p). Some minor changes have been made to this section concerning protective clothing and equipment. There is no economic impact.

109-2-8 (r),(s),(t). This regulation is sort of a trade off for the changes made in sections (m) through (q). It requires each ambulance service to develop a list of the necessary equipment carried aboard each ambulance, which is then approved by the service's medical society. The board will inspect each service according to these standards and will reflect discrepancies accordingly.

Since many ambulance services are restricted by their medical society from using certain pieces of equipment which are currently required by regulations, the changes in equipment requirements should allow greater flexibility for all service operators while decreasing costs for previously mandated equipment. Cost reductions for some operators may be significant.

K.A.R. 109-2-9. Variances. This regulation proposes some significant changes in the application for a variance from regulations. These changes will give the board specific guidelines to follow when considering variances, while allowing for alternative procedures which still protect the public's health and safety. These proposed changes should have a positive economic impact on small service operators and other EMS providers and instructors in areas of limited resources.

K.A.R. 109-2-11. Standards for Type V ground ambulances and equipment. This regulation is very similar to 109-2-8. The proposed changes will allow for greater vehicle and equipment flexibility while providing a method which ensures that the proper equipment is available according to local medical guidelines. There are significant changes in this regulation, all of which should produce a positive economic impact for the operator.

K.A.R. 109-2-12. Standards for rotorwing ambulance aircraft and equipment. This regulation defines the standards for rotorwing ambulance aircraft and equipment. Most of this material is new, with only a small portion being taken from existing regulations.

109-2-12 (a),(b). This regulation requires all aircraft and air ambulance operators to comply with existing Federal Aviation Regulations, and requires each aircraft to send a current copy of aircraft's air worthiness certificate to the board.

109-2-12 (c) through (l). This regulation defines the operating systems of rotorwing aircraft including protection of flight controls, aircraft entry and loading, configuration of the patient care compartment, climate control systems, patient stretcher requirements, interior lighting, alternative power sources for on-board equipment, isolettes and external search light. All current licensed rotorwing aircraft meet these requirements. There is no economic impact.

109-2-12 (m). This section specifies the communication system capabilities. Although the verbiage is different, no substantial changes have occurred. There is no economic impact.

109-2-12 (n). The proposed changes in this section reduce the necessary number of fire extinguishers from two to one as long as both the pilots and attendants have access to the one extinguisher. Patient comfort equipment also has been eliminated and left up to the operator as needed. In most instances, a cost reduction of one fire extinguisher is expected.

109-2-12 (o),(p). The changes in these sections reflect a significant change in the on-board medical systems, including oxygen and suction systems and other essential medical equipment. Each rotorwing aircraft is required to carry the equipment which allows it to meet the specific mission to which it will respond. This section is very similar to 109-2-11. These changes should reflect a cost reduction for the operator.

K.A.R. 109-2-13. Standards for fixed-wing ambulance aircraft and equipment. This regulation defines the standards for Type V fixed wing ambulance aircraft. This is an entirely new regulation, but is very similar to 109-2-12, and incorporates parts of 109-4-1, 109-4-2 and 109-4-3, which have henceforth been revoked. There are some additional equipment requirements for Type V fixed wing aircraft. All current licensed fixed-wing air ambulances already comply with this regulation. A positive economic impact is expected.

K.A.R. 109-2-14. Temporarily certified attendants. This regulation specifies the number of temporary certified attendants an operator may use in proportion to the number of Kansas certified attendants which are listed on the operator's roster. No economic impact is expected.

K.A.R. 109-3-1. Standards for ambulance attendants and drivers. This regulation removes the words "first responder," since a first responder is now referred to as an "attendant" by statute.

K.A.R. 109-4-1, 109-4-2 and 109-4-3. These regulations have been revoked. Some of their content has been included in 109-2-12 and 109-2-13.

K.A.R. 109-14-1. Certification of entities which distribute DNR identifiers. This regulation describes the requirements for entities which distribute alternative identifiers used for the "Do Not Resuscitate" directive. This regulation is permissive and not required. There is no economic impact.

Notice of Variance Request from Hazardous Waste Regulations

The Kansas Department of Health and Environment is providing public notice that on July 26, 1996, Hackney and Sons Inc., located at West Laurel Street and Hackney Avenue in Independence, submitted a request for a renewal of a variance from specific hazardous waste regulations. The current variance will expire October 20, 1996. The request for a variance was submitted in accordance with K.A.R. 28-31-13(a).

The variance is requested from K.A.R. 28-31-4 and 40 CFR 265.176, which require the storage of containers holding ignitable hazardous waste must be located at least 15 meters (50 feet) from the facility's property line.

Hackney & Sons generates ignitable hazardous waste, which is stored prior to being shipped off-site for reclamation. Hackney & Sons proposes to store this waste in a concrete pit that has a chain-link fence surrounding the property and a roof atop. KDHE has reviewed the variance request and concluded that the variance is justified. In accordance with K.A.R. 28-31-13(b), public notice is being provided of the tentative decision to grant renewal of the variance.

Copies of the variance request will be available for public review until October 16 from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays at the KDHE, Building 740, Forbes Field, Topeka, and at the KDHE district office, 1500 W. 7th, Chanute.

Comments concerning this variance request may be directed to Candy Williamson, Hazardous Waste Section, KDHE, Building 740, Topeka, 66620. Comments must be submitted in writing prior to October 16. Requests for additional information may be made by contacting KDHE at (913) 296-6898.

Upon the written request of any interested person, a public meeting may be held to consider comments on this tentative decision. The person requesting a meeting shall state the issues to be raised and shall explain why written comments would not suffice to communicate the person's views. If a decision is made to conduct a public meeting, a separate public notice detailing the date and place of a public meeting will be issued.

After evaluating all public comments, a final decision shall be made by the KDHE secretary and a notice of the final decision shall be published in the Kansas Register. If approved, any conditions or time limitations needed to comply with all applicable state or federal laws or to protect human health or safety or the environment shall be specified by the secretary. A date upon which the variance will no longer be valid shall be prescribed in the final decision.

(c) All prizes are subject to deductions provided by law. (Authorized by K.S.A. 1995 Supp. 74-8710(b), (c) and (f); implementing K.S.A. 1995 Supp. 74-8710(b), (c) and (f); effective, T-111-9-4-96, Aug. 16, 1996.)

Article 6.—ON-LINE GENERIC

111-6-1. Definitions. (a) All definitions contained in the Kansas lottery act (K.S.A. 74-8701 et seq.) and amendments thereto, and lottery regulations adopted pursuant to the Kansas lottery act are hereby incorporated by reference.

(b) "On-line Game" or "game" means a lottery game in which a player selects a combination of numbers or symbols, the type of game and amount of play, and the drawing date(s) by use of a computer. In return for paying the appropriate fee, the player receives a computer-generated ticket with the player's selection printed on it. The Kansas lottery (lottery) will conduct a drawing to determine the winning combination in accordance with the rules of the specific game being played. Each ticket holder whose valid ticket includes a winning combination shall be entitled to a prize if the ticket and a valid claim form are submitted within the specified time period.

(c) "On-line Retailer" or "retailer" means a person or business authorized by the Lottery to sell on-line tickets.

(d) "On-line Terminal (OLT)" or "terminal" means the computer hardware by which the on-line retailer or player enters the combination selected by the player and by which on-line tickets are generated and claims are validated.

(e) "On-line Ticket" or "ticket" means a computer-generated ticket issued by an on-line terminal to a player as a receipt for the combination a player had selected. That ticket shall be the only acceptable evidence of the combination of numbers or symbols selected.

(f) "Drawing" includes the procedure determined by the executive director by which the lottery selects the winning combination in accordance with the rules of the game or the procedure of removing non-winning tickets or other types of entry forms from a receptacle or drum in a drawing event conducted by the lottery. Various types of drawings and procedures involve the following:

(1) Those utilizing ball sets are open to the public, and are required to be witnessed by a lottery security officer and a drawing manager. Furthermore, the equipment used in any drawing must be inspected by the lottery security official present before the drawing.

(2) Winning number combinations may be generated through the use of a computer-driven random number generator located at lottery headquarters as provided by specific game rules. The generator shall be statistically analyzed, tested, and certified by an independent qualified statistician for integrity. Periodic checks shall be made to ensure the security and integrity of the system at least quarterly.

(3) Drawing events requiring non-winning tickets or entry forms from a receptacle or drum shall be conducted in accordance with specific game rules and K.A.R. 111-6-6.

(4) All drawings and inspections are required to be recorded on both video and audio tape.

(g) "Quick pick" means the random selection of numbers or symbols which appear on a ticket and are played by a player in a game.

(h) "Winning combination" means one or more numbers or symbols randomly selected at each on-line game drawing which shall be used to determine winning plays contained on a game ticket.

(i) "Validation" means the process of determining whether an on-line ticket presented for payment is a winning ticket.

(j) "Ticket holder" or "holder" means the person who has possession of an unsigned ticket or the person whose signature appears in the area upon a ticket designated for signature.

(k) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Kansas lottery or the person designated by the executive director.

(l) "Social environment establishment" means a retailer licensed to serve cereal malt beverage and/or alcohol for consumption on premises in which "Keno" ticket sales constitute at least 60% of total lottery sales. Determination that a retailer meets the 60% "Keno" sales requirement to be a social environment establishment shall be waived until at least 10 full weeks after lottery ticket sales are authorized.

(m) "Attempt(s) to cancel" means that a retailer enters cancellation data into an on-line terminal or is informed by a player, prior to the first drawing for which the ticket was eligible, that the ticket was produced in error either because of a terminal malfunction or by miscommunication between a player and a retailer.

(n) "Problem ticket" means any on-line ticket erroneously produced either by terminal malfunction or by miscommunication between a player and a retailer.

(o) "Receptacle" or "drum" means a container in which non-winning tickets or entry forms are placed and from which the drawings are made. Receptacles or drums shall be sealable and drums shall be capable of being mixed or rotated for the purpose of ensuring random distribution.

(p) "Day," "business day" or "operations day," when referring to an on-line game, means the 17-hour period starting at 6:00 a.m. and ending at 1:00 a.m., the following day, unless specified otherwise in individual game rules. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 1995 Supp. 74-8710; effective, T-89-4, Jan. 21, 1988; amended, T-111-1-27-89, Jan. 26, 1989; amended, T-111-10-10-90, Sept. 15, 1990; amended, T-111-12-21-90, Dec. 14, 1990; amended, T-111-9-20-91, Sept. 20, 1991; amended, T-111-7-1-92, June 26, 1992; amended, T-111-9-1-92, Aug. 28, 1992; amended, T-111-3-26-93, March 19, 1993; amended, T-111-3-3-94, Feb. 25, 1994; amended, T-111-7-22-96, July 19, 1996; amended, T-111-9-4-96, Aug. 16, 1996.)

Article 7.—CASH LOTTO GAME RULES

111-7-122. Prime pool. (a) The prize pool in the lottery prize payment fund for all prize categories shall consist of 49.45 percent of net sales for each draw. Net sales shall be total sales less free ticket prizes. The prize pool shall include all sums previously designated for the Cash Lotto jackpot prize if that jackpot is not won on the August 17, 1996, drawing. The Kansas lottery guarantees the jackpot prize for Kansas Cash shall be a minimum of $100,000. If the minimum jackpot amount of $100,000 is not won on the first drawing on which that amount appeared, the minimum jackpot for the next drawing shall increase to $125,000. Further rolls of the jackpot shall result in jackpot increases based on sales. Moneys left over after the five of six and four of six prizes have been rounded down pursuant to subsection (f) of K.A.R. 111-7-123 shall be applied to prizes in categories 2 and 3 in the next Kansas Cash drawing.
